

Home Journal.

Editor Home Journal:
Our community was thrown into considerable excitement, on last Saturday evening, over the very sad accident that resulted in the instant killing of Mr. Mike Tucker, which occurred about one o'clock, at the residence of his father, 1 1/2 miles west of this place. Mr. Tucker, on the day mentioned, with his family had left his home (in Buncombe) and gone over to spend the night with his father. Upon arriving at his father's, he placed his wife and children out of the wagon, and intended to take out his horses. Just then the horses became frightened and ran away. The lines, it seems, were out of his reach. He went forward on the wagon-tongue to get hold of the lines or bridles. In this position, the horses ran about 75 yards and struck against a tree, which severed them and stove the wagon-bed against the tree, crushing the head of the deceased in a most shocking manner. A gentleman present soon after the accident said: "The bleeding body on the ground, and the troubled, weeping wife, mother and family, was one of the saddest spectacles of my life."

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Election August 5th, 1880.

For Sheriff.

We are authorized to announce John J. Turner a candidate for Sheriff of Franklin county, at the election the first Thursday in August next.

For Trustee.

We are authorized to announce R. F. Oakley a candidate for election to the office of Sheriff of Franklin county, at the ensuing August election.

For Trustee.

We are authorized to announce A. J. Skidmore a candidate for Trustee of Franklin county at the ensuing August election.

For Trustee.

We are authorized to announce J. M. Houston a candidate for Trustee of Franklin county at the ensuing August election.

For Trustee.

Although I have said I would not again run for re-election to the office of Trustee of Franklin county, yet because of the earnest solicitation of so many friends, I yield to their wishes and hereby announce myself a candidate.

ROBERTSON J. TURNER.

For Trustee.

We are authorized to announce W. P. Cherry a candidate for Trustee of Franklin county at the ensuing August election.

For Chancellor.

To the voters of Warren, Coffee, Cannon, Grundy, Bedford, Franklin, Lincoln, Rutherford and Moore counties: I hereby respectfully make known to you that I am a candidate for Chancellor of the Fourth Division, which position I now hold by appointment. Election Thursday, Aug. 5, 1880. J. W. BERTON, Murfreesboro, Tenn. J. W. BERTON.

Circuit Court convenes next Monday.

The Mite Social will meet at Mrs. Dr. Murrell's residence next Friday night.

The Scottsboro (Ala.) Citizen says the trial of Ben. Franka was postponed until next Court.

A shipwrecked sailor waiting for a sail is like a business man sitting at home and nursing a cough or cold. Get Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and be cured. Only 25 cents a bottle.

Instead of prayer meeting, there will be a social meeting of the members, at the C. P. Church next Friday night, at 6:30 o'clock.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Trinity Parish will be held at Mrs. Robertson's residence, Saturday, the 20th instant, at 2:30 p. m.

We have had a long "spell" of wet weather, and most of our readers have not yet gardened any. We say to them that if they want bulbs, seeds or plants, send to Messrs. Nantz & Neuner, Louisville, Ky. Their stock is fresh and sure. We have their catalogue in our office. Patronize them.

The next meeting of the Franklin County Sunday School Association will be held in the Presbyterian Church, Decherd, Saturday, April 3d, 1880. As this is the annual meeting, and one of importance to the Sunday School interests of the county, it is hoped that every school of all denominations will send delegates—as many as they please. The Decherd friends will sustain their character for hospitality, and a good time may be expected. The programme will be published next week.

There is talk of getting up a military company in Winchester. We second the motion. There are plenty of young men in our town, and plenty in the country who would come to town, say every Saturday, and altogether they would make a good company. The exercise of drilling would be healthful and a pleasant pastime. The arms can be had from the State, and a nice uniform would not cost much, pro-rated. Stir up the matter, young men. We want to join, provided there is to be no fighting.

The necessity of a town-clock, to be put in the Courthouse cupola, is again discussed. The cupola was constructed with a view of putting a clock therein, and we hope one will be secured. Our County Court should appropriate, say one-half, and the Corporation the other half of its cost. We suppose one could be had for about $400. It would be of service to all country people when they come to town, and of service to town-people. It may not be an absolute necessity, but we cannot see any reason why we should not have it. The cost would not be felt by our people if purchased in the way we have suggested, and any opposition, it seems to us, most come from those who would hoard up "filthy lucre" merely from a spirit of stinginess, rather than give a little for the public good. A stony man is a poor man though he may have the wealth of Astor, and a stingy town and county are poor even if they own nothing. Let us have the clock. County and town pride, if nothing else, ought to settle the matter at once.

FROM BEVERIDE.

BEVERIDE, TENN., March 15, '80.

Editor Home Journal:
Our community was thrown into considerable excitement, on last Saturday evening, over the very sad accident that resulted in the instant killing of Mr. Mike Tucker, which occurred about one o'clock, at the residence of his father, 1 1/2 miles west of this place. Mr. Tucker, on the day mentioned, with his family had left his home (in Buncombe) and gone over to spend the night with his father. Upon arriving at his father's, he placed his wife and children out of the wagon, and intended to take out his horses. Just then the horses became frightened and ran away. The lines, it seems, were out of his reach. He went forward on the wagon-tongue to get hold of the lines or bridles. In this position, the horses ran about 75 yards and struck against a tree, which severed them and stove the wagon-bed against the tree, crushing the head of the deceased in a most shocking manner. A gentleman present soon after the accident said: "The bleeding body on the ground, and the troubled, weeping wife, mother and family, was one of the saddest spectacles of my life."

FROM DECHERD.

DECHERD, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
We had a side-show performance in Decherd Saturday evening and night. It was given for the benefit of one of the churches here. A large crowd was in attendance at night. Everything went off quite pleasantly, and all seemed to be well pleased with the performance.

Mary Vaughan, who has been insane for the last twenty odd years, died last Saturday at the residence of her brother, S. S. Vaughan, in this place. The cause of her death is rather a singular circumstance. She had been in her usual health, which was good, until last Thursday night, or Friday morning, when she complained of being quite sick, suffering severely with great misery in her stomach. Soon after she was found to be sick, Mr. Vaughan's wife discovered that Mary had torn one of her corsets into pieces, tearing it into very small bits, of which only a small portion could be found. When asked what she had done with the remainder of it, she replied that she had eaten it up. She said that she felt sick on Thursday night, and thought that by eating her dress it would make her feel better. She had previously been in the habit of tearing some of her clothing into pieces, but had never been known to eat any of it before, except upon one occasion, when she tore up one of her cotton stockings and ate a part of it. Dr. F. B. Sloan was called in to administer to her relief, but could not get any medicine to act. Deceased was about 45 years old, and was the daughter of S. S. P. Vaughan, dec'd.

A young cyclone passed over a portion of the farm belonging to Messrs. Stewart & Sloan last Thursday. Mr. Sloan says it came from the west, and passed between his house and barn, which are about one hundred and fifty yards apart. He says it tore the very ground up nearly struck one corner of his straw-stack, tearing it out, tore off a small tree at the ground; struck a line of fence, running straight with it, and scattered the rails like straws. He says he believes if he had passed over his house that it would have been torn all to pieces. We have heard of no further damage from it. It is supposed that it struck the earth near the farm of Stewart & Sloan, and soon left it again.

We learn this morning that Mr. Pinkney Morris, a young man who works at the blacksmithing business, died yesterday, 14th inst. His residence was at Hickoryville, in this county. His death was quite sudden, having been sick only a day or two.

FROM THE 10TH DISTRICT.

COWAN, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
The heaviest rain-fall we have had this winter fell on the evening of the 12th. Farm work has been suspended the past two weeks, on account of so much rain. But few oats sown, or little gardening done.

Capt. Don't, general manager of the blast furnace located at Chattanooga, made a short visit to Cowan last week. He came in the interest of Cherry, O'Connor & Co., who have purchased the site and lands with a view of erecting a furnace at Cowan. He speaks favorably of the situation and its surroundings, and says the limestone is a superior quality for making pig-iron.

Mr. Robertson, tank and pump repairer for the N. & C. Railroad, is having lumber delivered to build him a neat residence in Cowan.

Miss Ella McIlhenny has been dangerously ill the past week, but is improving.

DR. A. At his residence in Sewanee, on the 10th inst., Pleasant Gilliam. The deceased was born and raised in Coffee county, where his remains were interred. He was a citizen of Cowan for several years, and had many friends. He leaves a wife, four children, and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

FROM THE 17TH DISTRICT.

ESTILLSPRING, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
It is our painful duty to announce the death of Mrs. Sallie Holt, wife of W. B. Holt. She died on the morning of the 10th inst. in the 53d year of her age, leaving "Uncle Bill" and nine children to mourn her loss. It has been a crushing blow to our genial, light-hearted old friend, and he has the heartfelt sympathy of every member of the community. If space were permitted us, we would like to dwell upon the christian virtues of the departed. Let it suffice to say that she was everything that a christian wife and mother should be.

This is the ninth day of rain this month, and the farmers are getting very uneasy for fear that they will be over late in getting in their crops.

Yours, R. STYX.

FROM DECHERD.

DECHERD, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
We had a side-show performance in Decherd Saturday evening and night. It was given for the benefit of one of the churches here. A large crowd was in attendance at night. Everything went off quite pleasantly, and all seemed to be well pleased with the performance.

Mary Vaughan, who has been insane for the last twenty odd years, died last Saturday at the residence of her brother, S. S. Vaughan, in this place. The cause of her death is rather a singular circumstance. She had been in her usual health, which was good, until last Thursday night, or Friday morning, when she complained of being quite sick, suffering severely with great misery in her stomach. Soon after she was found to be sick, Mr. Vaughan's wife discovered that Mary had torn one of her corsets into pieces, tearing it into very small bits, of which only a small portion could be found. When asked what she had done with the remainder of it, she replied that she had eaten it up. She said that she felt sick on Thursday night, and thought that by eating her dress it would make her feel better. She had previously been in the habit of tearing some of her clothing into pieces, but had never been known to eat any of it before, except upon one occasion, when she tore up one of her cotton stockings and ate a part of it. Dr. F. B. Sloan was called in to administer to her relief, but could not get any medicine to act. Deceased was about 45 years old, and was the daughter of S. S. P. Vaughan, dec'd.

A young cyclone passed over a portion of the farm belonging to Messrs. Stewart & Sloan last Thursday. Mr. Sloan says it came from the west, and passed between his house and barn, which are about one hundred and fifty yards apart. He says it tore the very ground up nearly struck one corner of his straw-stack, tearing it out, tore off a small tree at the ground; struck a line of fence, running straight with it, and scattered the rails like straws. He says he believes if he had passed over his house that it would have been torn all to pieces. We have heard of no further damage from it. It is supposed that it struck the earth near the farm of Stewart & Sloan, and soon left it again.

We learn this morning that Mr. Pinkney Morris, a young man who works at the blacksmithing business, died yesterday, 14th inst. His residence was at Hickoryville, in this county. His death was quite sudden, having been sick only a day or two.

FROM THE 10TH DISTRICT.

COWAN, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
The heaviest rain-fall we have had this winter fell on the evening of the 12th. Farm work has been suspended the past two weeks, on account of so much rain. But few oats sown, or little gardening done.

Capt. Don't, general manager of the blast furnace located at Chattanooga, made a short visit to Cowan last week. He came in the interest of Cherry, O'Connor & Co., who have purchased the site and lands with a view of erecting a furnace at Cowan. He speaks favorably of the situation and its surroundings, and says the limestone is a superior quality for making pig-iron.

Mr. Robertson, tank and pump repairer for the N. & C. Railroad, is having lumber delivered to build him a neat residence in Cowan.

Miss Ella McIlhenny has been dangerously ill the past week, but is improving.

DR. A. At his residence in Sewanee, on the 10th inst., Pleasant Gilliam. The deceased was born and raised in Coffee county, where his remains were interred. He was a citizen of Cowan for several years, and had many friends. He leaves a wife, four children, and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

FROM THE 17TH DISTRICT.

ESTILLSPRING, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
It is our painful duty to announce the death of Mrs. Sallie Holt, wife of W. B. Holt. She died on the morning of the 10th inst. in the 53d year of her age, leaving "Uncle Bill" and nine children to mourn her loss. It has been a crushing blow to our genial, light-hearted old friend, and he has the heartfelt sympathy of every member of the community. If space were permitted us, we would like to dwell upon the christian virtues of the departed. Let it suffice to say that she was everything that a christian wife and mother should be.

This is the ninth day of rain this month, and the farmers are getting very uneasy for fear that they will be over late in getting in their crops.

Yours, R. STYX.

FROM DECHERD.

DECHERD, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
We had a side-show performance in Decherd Saturday evening and night. It was given for the benefit of one of the churches here. A large crowd was in attendance at night. Everything went off quite pleasantly, and all seemed to be well pleased with the performance.

Mary Vaughan, who has been insane for the last twenty odd years, died last Saturday at the residence of her brother, S. S. Vaughan, in this place. The cause of her death is rather a singular circumstance. She had been in her usual health, which was good, until last Thursday night, or Friday morning, when she complained of being quite sick, suffering severely with great misery in her stomach. Soon after she was found to be sick, Mr. Vaughan's wife discovered that Mary had torn one of her corsets into pieces, tearing it into very small bits, of which only a small portion could be found. When asked what she had done with the remainder of it, she replied that she had eaten it up. She said that she felt sick on Thursday night, and thought that by eating her dress it would make her feel better. She had previously been in the habit of tearing some of her clothing into pieces, but had never been known to eat any of it before, except upon one occasion, when she tore up one of her cotton stockings and ate a part of it. Dr. F. B. Sloan was called in to administer to her relief, but could not get any medicine to act. Deceased was about 45 years old, and was the daughter of S. S. P. Vaughan, dec'd.

A young cyclone passed over a portion of the farm belonging to Messrs. Stewart & Sloan last Thursday. Mr. Sloan says it came from the west, and passed between his house and barn, which are about one hundred and fifty yards apart. He says it tore the very ground up nearly struck one corner of his straw-stack, tearing it out, tore off a small tree at the ground; struck a line of fence, running straight with it, and scattered the rails like straws. He says he believes if he had passed over his house that it would have been torn all to pieces. We have heard of no further damage from it. It is supposed that it struck the earth near the farm of Stewart & Sloan, and soon left it again.

We learn this morning that Mr. Pinkney Morris, a young man who works at the blacksmithing business, died yesterday, 14th inst. His residence was at Hickoryville, in this county. His death was quite sudden, having been sick only a day or two.

FROM THE 10TH DISTRICT.

COWAN, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
The heaviest rain-fall we have had this winter fell on the evening of the 12th. Farm work has been suspended the past two weeks, on account of so much rain. But few oats sown, or little gardening done.

Capt. Don't, general manager of the blast furnace located at Chattanooga, made a short visit to Cowan last week. He came in the interest of Cherry, O'Connor & Co., who have purchased the site and lands with a view of erecting a furnace at Cowan. He speaks favorably of the situation and its surroundings, and says the limestone is a superior quality for making pig-iron.

Mr. Robertson, tank and pump repairer for the N. & C. Railroad, is having lumber delivered to build him a neat residence in Cowan.

Miss Ella McIlhenny has been dangerously ill the past week, but is improving.

DR. A. At his residence in Sewanee, on the 10th inst., Pleasant Gilliam. The deceased was born and raised in Coffee county, where his remains were interred. He was a citizen of Cowan for several years, and had many friends. He leaves a wife, four children, and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

FROM THE 17TH DISTRICT.

ESTILLSPRING, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
It is our painful duty to announce the death of Mrs. Sallie Holt, wife of W. B. Holt. She died on the morning of the 10th inst. in the 53d year of her age, leaving "Uncle Bill" and nine children to mourn her loss. It has been a crushing blow to our genial, light-hearted old friend, and he has the heartfelt sympathy of every member of the community. If space were permitted us, we would like to dwell upon the christian virtues of the departed. Let it suffice to say that she was everything that a christian wife and mother should be.

This is the ninth day of rain this month, and the farmers are getting very uneasy for fear that they will be over late in getting in their crops.

Yours, R. STYX.

FROM DECHERD.

DECHERD, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
We had a side-show performance in Decherd Saturday evening and night. It was given for the benefit of one of the churches here. A large crowd was in attendance at night. Everything went off quite pleasantly, and all seemed to be well pleased with the performance.

Mary Vaughan, who has been insane for the last twenty odd years, died last Saturday at the residence of her brother, S. S. Vaughan, in this place. The cause of her death is rather a singular circumstance. She had been in her usual health, which was good, until last Thursday night, or Friday morning, when she complained of being quite sick, suffering severely with great misery in her stomach. Soon after she was found to be sick, Mr. Vaughan's wife discovered that Mary had torn one of her corsets into pieces, tearing it into very small bits, of which only a small portion could be found. When asked what she had done with the remainder of it, she replied that she had eaten it up. She said that she felt sick on Thursday night, and thought that by eating her dress it would make her feel better. She had previously been in the habit of tearing some of her clothing into pieces, but had never been known to eat any of it before, except upon one occasion, when she tore up one of her cotton stockings and ate a part of it. Dr. F. B. Sloan was called in to administer to her relief, but could not get any medicine to act. Deceased was about 45 years old, and was the daughter of S. S. P. Vaughan, dec'd.

A young cyclone passed over a portion of the farm belonging to Messrs. Stewart & Sloan last Thursday. Mr. Sloan says it came from the west, and passed between his house and barn, which are about one hundred and fifty yards apart. He says it tore the very ground up nearly struck one corner of his straw-stack, tearing it out, tore off a small tree at the ground; struck a line of fence, running straight with it, and scattered the rails like straws. He says he believes if he had passed over his house that it would have been torn all to pieces. We have heard of no further damage from it. It is supposed that it struck the earth near the farm of Stewart & Sloan, and soon left it again.

We learn this morning that Mr. Pinkney Morris, a young man who works at the blacksmithing business, died yesterday, 14th inst. His residence was at Hickoryville, in this county. His death was quite sudden, having been sick only a day or two.

FROM THE 10TH DISTRICT.

COWAN, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
The heaviest rain-fall we have had this winter fell on the evening of the 12th. Farm work has been suspended the past two weeks, on account of so much rain. But few oats sown, or little gardening done.

Capt. Don't, general manager of the blast furnace located at Chattanooga, made a short visit to Cowan last week. He came in the interest of Cherry, O'Connor & Co., who have purchased the site and lands with a view of erecting a furnace at Cowan. He speaks favorably of the situation and its surroundings, and says the limestone is a superior quality for making pig-iron.

Mr. Robertson, tank and pump repairer for the N. & C. Railroad, is having lumber delivered to build him a neat residence in Cowan.

Miss Ella McIlhenny has been dangerously ill the past week, but is improving.

DR. A. At his residence in Sewanee, on the 10th inst., Pleasant Gilliam. The deceased was born and raised in Coffee county, where his remains were interred. He was a citizen of Cowan for several years, and had many friends. He leaves a wife, four children, and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

FROM THE 17TH DISTRICT.

ESTILLSPRING, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
It is our painful duty to announce the death of Mrs. Sallie Holt, wife of W. B. Holt. She died on the morning of the 10th inst. in the 53d year of her age, leaving "Uncle Bill" and nine children to mourn her loss. It has been a crushing blow to our genial, light-hearted old friend, and he has the heartfelt sympathy of every member of the community. If space were permitted us, we would like to dwell upon the christian virtues of the departed. Let it suffice to say that she was everything that a christian wife and mother should be.

This is the ninth day of rain this month, and the farmers are getting very uneasy for fear that they will be over late in getting in their crops.

Yours, R. STYX.

FROM DECHERD.

DECHERD, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
We had a side-show performance in Decherd Saturday evening and night. It was given for the benefit of one of the churches here. A large crowd was in attendance at night. Everything went off quite pleasantly, and all seemed to be well pleased with the performance.

Mary Vaughan, who has been insane for the last twenty odd years, died last Saturday at the residence of her brother, S. S. Vaughan, in this place. The cause of her death is rather a singular circumstance. She had been in her usual health, which was good, until last Thursday night, or Friday morning, when she complained of being quite sick, suffering severely with great misery in her stomach. Soon after she was found to be sick, Mr. Vaughan's wife discovered that Mary had torn one of her corsets into pieces, tearing it into very small bits, of which only a small portion could be found. When asked what she had done with the remainder of it, she replied that she had eaten it up. She said that she felt sick on Thursday night, and thought that by eating her dress it would make her feel better. She had previously been in the habit of tearing some of her clothing into pieces, but had never been known to eat any of it before, except upon one occasion, when she tore up one of her cotton stockings and ate a part of it. Dr. F. B. Sloan was called in to administer to her relief, but could not get any medicine to act. Deceased was about 45 years old, and was the daughter of S. S. P. Vaughan, dec'd.

A young cyclone passed over a portion of the farm belonging to Messrs. Stewart & Sloan last Thursday. Mr. Sloan says it came from the west, and passed between his house and barn, which are about one hundred and fifty yards apart. He says it tore the very ground up nearly struck one corner of his straw-stack, tearing it out, tore off a small tree at the ground; struck a line of fence, running straight with it, and scattered the rails like straws. He says he believes if he had passed over his house that it would have been torn all to pieces. We have heard of no further damage from it. It is supposed that it struck the earth near the farm of Stewart & Sloan, and soon left it again.

We learn this morning that Mr. Pinkney Morris, a young man who works at the blacksmithing business, died yesterday, 14th inst. His residence was at Hickoryville, in this county. His death was quite sudden, having been sick only a day or two.

FROM THE 10TH DISTRICT.

COWAN, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
The heaviest rain-fall we have had this winter fell on the evening of the 12th. Farm work has been suspended the past two weeks, on account of so much rain. But few oats sown, or little gardening done.

Capt. Don't, general manager of the blast furnace located at Chattanooga, made a short visit to Cowan last week. He came in the interest of Cherry, O'Connor & Co., who have purchased the site and lands with a view of erecting a furnace at Cowan. He speaks favorably of the situation and its surroundings, and says the limestone is a superior quality for making pig-iron.

Mr. Robertson, tank and pump repairer for the N. & C. Railroad, is having lumber delivered to build him a neat residence in Cowan.

Miss Ella McIlhenny has been dangerously ill the past week, but is improving.

DR. A. At his residence in Sewanee, on the 10th inst., Pleasant Gilliam. The deceased was born and raised in Coffee county, where his remains were interred. He was a citizen of Cowan for several years, and had many friends. He leaves a wife, four children, and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

FROM THE 17TH DISTRICT.

ESTILLSPRING, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
It is our painful duty to announce the death of Mrs. Sallie Holt, wife of W. B. Holt. She died on the morning of the 10th inst. in the 53d year of her age, leaving "Uncle Bill" and nine children to mourn her loss. It has been a crushing blow to our genial, light-hearted old friend, and he has the heartfelt sympathy of every member of the community. If space were permitted us, we would like to dwell upon the christian virtues of the departed. Let it suffice to say that she was everything that a christian wife and mother should be.

This is the ninth day of rain this month, and the farmers are getting very uneasy for fear that they will be over late in getting in their crops.

Yours, R. STYX.

FROM DECHERD.

DECHERD, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
We had a side-show performance in Decherd Saturday evening and night. It was given for the benefit of one of the churches here. A large crowd was in attendance at night. Everything went off quite pleasantly, and all seemed to be well pleased with the performance.

Mary Vaughan, who has been insane for the last twenty odd years, died last Saturday at the residence of her brother, S. S. Vaughan, in this place. The cause of her death is rather a singular circumstance. She had been in her usual health, which was good, until last Thursday night, or Friday morning, when she complained of being quite sick, suffering severely with great misery in her stomach. Soon after she was found to be sick, Mr. Vaughan's wife discovered that Mary had torn one of her corsets into pieces, tearing it into very small bits, of which only a small portion could be found. When asked what she had done with the remainder of it, she replied that she had eaten it up. She said that she felt sick on Thursday night, and thought that by eating her dress it would make her feel better. She had previously been in the habit of tearing some of her clothing into pieces, but had never been known to eat any of it before, except upon one occasion, when she tore up one of her cotton stockings and ate a part of it. Dr. F. B. Sloan was called in to administer to her relief, but could not get any medicine to act. Deceased was about 45 years old, and was the daughter of S. S. P. Vaughan, dec'd.

A young cyclone passed over a portion of the farm belonging to Messrs. Stewart & Sloan last Thursday. Mr. Sloan says it came from the west, and passed between his house and barn, which are about one hundred and fifty yards apart. He says it tore the very ground up nearly struck one corner of his straw-stack, tearing it out, tore off a small tree at the ground; struck a line of fence, running straight with it, and scattered the rails like straws. He says he believes if he had passed over his house that it would have been torn all to pieces. We have heard of no further damage from it. It is supposed that it struck the earth near the farm of Stewart & Sloan, and soon left it again.

We learn this morning that Mr. Pinkney Morris, a young man who works at the blacksmithing business, died yesterday, 14th inst. His residence was at Hickoryville, in this county. His death was quite sudden, having been sick only a day or two.

FROM THE 10TH DISTRICT.

COWAN, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
The heaviest rain-fall we have had this winter fell on the evening of the 12th. Farm work has been suspended the past two weeks, on account of so much rain. But few oats sown, or little gardening done.

Capt. Don't, general manager of the blast furnace located at Chattanooga, made a short visit to Cowan last week. He came in the interest of Cherry, O'Connor & Co., who have purchased the site and lands with a view of erecting a furnace at Cowan. He speaks favorably of the situation and its surroundings, and says the limestone is a superior quality for making pig-iron.

Mr. Robertson, tank and pump repairer for the N. & C. Railroad, is having lumber delivered to build him a neat residence in Cowan.

Miss Ella McIlhenny has been dangerously ill the past week, but is improving.

DR. A. At his residence in Sewanee, on the 10th inst., Pleasant Gilliam. The deceased was born and raised in Coffee county, where his remains were interred. He was a citizen of Cowan for several years, and had many friends. He leaves a wife, four children, and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

FROM THE 17TH DISTRICT.

ESTILLSPRING, TENN., March 15.

Editor Home Journal:
It is our painful duty to announce the death of Mrs. Sallie Holt, wife of W. B. Holt. She died on the morning of the 10th inst. in the 53d year of her age, leaving "Uncle Bill" and nine children to mourn her loss. It has been a crushing blow to our genial, light-hearted old friend, and he has the heartfelt sympathy of every member of the community. If space were permitted us, we would like to dwell upon the christian virtues of the departed. Let it suffice to say that she was everything that a christian wife and mother should be.

This is the ninth day of rain this month, and the farmers are getting very uneasy for fear that they will be over late in getting in their crops.

Yours, R. STYX.

FROM DECHERD.